

In case of changing or canceling the educational program, the corresponding program Rules for providing students with further education

1. Changing or canceling the educational program at the University of Georgia In this case, the student of the corresponding program is given the opportunity to choose: program In case of change, continue studying on the modified program, while canceling In case they continue their studies in a compatible, adjacent/relative educational manner program, or transferred to another accredited higher education institution by way of mobility in an educational institution.
2. In case of changing or canceling the educational program, modified or to a student wishing to continue their studies on a compatible, adjacent/related program credits will be recognized in accordance with the credit recognition rules.
3. If the university does not carry out the canceled educational program compatible, Contiguous/Cognate Educational Program, University the decision to cancel the mentioned program shall be reasonable to notify the student in time so that the student can enjoy the right to mobility.
4. This rule applies to the education of each academic level in the case of changing or canceling the program, if the relevant academic level the statute does not provide for anything else.